Time passes. Wendy cooks for the boys. She is very busy, but she likes being their mother. She doesn't worry about her mother and father, but she worries about John and Michael. Some of the Indians go into the holes in the trees and can't get out again. The other Indians have to pull them out, like corks from bottles.

Another day Peter saves Tiger Lily, an Indian princess, from Captain Hook. The Indians become Peter's friends after that. They guard the entrances to the house under the ground and protect the Lost Boys from the pirates.

Then another day the pirates try to kill the boys with a poisoned (有毒的) cake. Luckily Wendy takes it from them in time. But then the "Night of Nights" arrives. The children don't know it, but this is the last evening on Neverland. In the house under the ground, Wendy puts John and Michael and the Lost Boys to bed. She starts to tell them their favorite story. Usually Peter puts his hands over his ears because he doesn't like this story, but tonight he sits and listens with the others. "In this story there is a man," says Wendy, "and his name is Mr. Darling. And there is a woman and her name is Mrs. Darling. They are married, and they have..." (节选自黑布林英语系列读本之 Peter Pan)

根据短文内容，完成下列表格，每空一词。

My dream home is a flying home. I get the idea from the film Up. Look at the photo! Isn't it a cool home? Do you think it is a strange idea?

The house is made of wood, so it is light. And how can I make it fly? I plan to tie some helium balloons (氦气球) to the house. They bring the house up into the air. It can fly for one hour at a time. It takes us to a different place every season. The house is not very big in size. We only need six comfortable rooms---two bedrooms, a living room, a kitchen, a dining room and a modern bathroom. The room flies to warm places in winter and cool places in summer.

Where can we get energy and water? We get energy from the sun and we collect rainwater to use.

So it's a green house.

I think it would be a cool home. But my parents say it is a crazy idea. They ask me what school I can study in if I live in that home. And they also say they must work in Yancheng. They can't live in a different place every season.

This is a great idea, right? Do you like the flying home? I hope my dream can come true one day.
